Navy Morale, Welfare and Recreation (MWR) is committed to operating its facilities and conducting its activities in a safe manner and holds the safety of its patrons and their guests of paramount importance. Navy MWR continually strives to reduce the risks associated with its operations and insists its patrons are aware of and follow all safety rules and instructions designed to protect them.

General. I confirm that I am an eligible MWR patron over 18 years of age, and if under 18 years of age, an authorized MWR patron participating in an MWR event/activity or utilizing MWR facilities or equipment (hereafter “MWR event/activity”) described below with express consent of my parents or other legal guardian(s). I also acknowledge that I have voluntarily chosen to participate in this MWR event/activity, and that the event/activity in which I am participating has certain risks, inherent and otherwise, that cannot be eliminated, and these risks can cause loss, damage and destruction to equipment and personal property, accidental injury and illness, and in extreme cases, permanent trauma, disability or death.

Warning of Risk. Despite proper maintenance and preparation of facilities and equipment, instruction, medical advice, conditioning, there is risk of serious injury when participating in any MWR event/activity. While some risks are inherent to the facility or the event/activity concerned, not all hazards and dangers can be foreseen. Depending on the particular facility or event/activity, I understand that there exists certain risks, dangers, and the possibility of injuries, illness, disability and death, including drowning, brought about by: Inclement weather; course conditions, both on land and in water, contact naturally occurring with plants, animals, and insects; slipping or falling, whether it be through poor skill level, preexisting medical condition, physical limitations, inattention, carelessness, or horseplay; inadequate or defective equipment; inadequate supervision or instruction, including the negligent act or omission of a Navy MWR employee or other individuals; and other circumstances inherent to the MWR event/activity. I also understand and acknowledge that there may be “free” time when I may not be actively participating in the MWR event/activity for which I am intending to participate, including pre-event stretching and warm-up activities, yet potential hazards may nevertheless be present. In this regard, I recognize that Navy MWR cannot guarantee my absolute safety should I participate in this MWR event/activity.

MWR Event/Activity. I understand and acknowledge the physical and mental rigors associated with triathlon, duathlon, or other multi-sport events/activities, and realize that these physical activities that may include, but are not limited to running, bicycling, swimming, strength and endurance challenges, maneuvering through multi-obstacle courses, and other portions of such events are inherently dangerous and represent an extreme test of a person’s physical and mental limits. I understand that my participation involves risks and dangers which include, without limitation, the potential for serious bodily injury, drowning, permanent disability, paralysis and death; loss or damage to property; exposure to extreme conditions and circumstances; accidents, illness, contact or collision with other participants, spectators, vehicles or other natural or manmade objects; dangers arising from adverse weather conditions; imperfect course conditions; water, road
